1. Read the given passage and answer the question that follow by choosing the correct / most appropriate options :

The plain fact of the situation is that if human beings go on picking flowers as greedily as they do at present, there will be few flowers left in the country to pick. There is the same argument for forbidding people to pick flowers or at least forbidding them to pick flowers by the basketful or dig them by roots - as there is for forbidding people to cut the pictures in the National Gallery out of their frames and to take them home with them. Anyone with a sense of beauty must have longed to carry off a picture from a public gallery. What beauty it would lend to the home ! How much lovelier it would seem there than on the dull walls of a crowded gallery! There is only one argument against taking it that there are not enough good pictures to go round. And we have now reached a stage at which there are not enough flowers to go round : In the old days a meadow of wild daffodils was lavish beyond the needs of countryside. With the popularisation of the bicycle began the invasion of the countryside by the hordes of the town and no sooner were the daffodils in flower than long processions of cyclists bore down on them and went home with the blooms as trophies on their handle bars. And now that the motor car has been added to the bicycle the pillage of the fields is increasing ten fold. Roots are dug up and carried off. Prime roses and blue bells are torn from the wayside to die on a drawing room table.

Common sense suggests indeed that we should be at pains to preserve the flowers of the country side. I am not sure that it would be a bad thing to forbid the sale of wild flowers for the increasing sale of wild flowers has undoubtedly helped to diminish and destroy them. There are enough flowers growing gardens to fill all the bowls and vases in the towns and there is no need to raid the fields for such purposes.

Picking of wild flowers would lead to :

- (1) Paucity of flowers in the cities
- (2) Disturb the ecological balance
- (3) The countryside would be left without flowers
- (4) The florists would be rendered jobless

दान-वीर में अर्थ त्याग का साहस अर्थात् उसके कारण होने वाले कष्ट या कठिनता को सहने की क्षमता अंतर्निहित रहती है। दानवीरता तभी कही जाएगी जब दान के कारण दानी को अपने जीवन-निर्वाह में किसी प्रकार का कष्ट या कठिनता दिखाई देगी। इसी कष्ट या कठिनता की मात्रा या संभावना जितनी ही अधिक होगी, दानवीरता उतनी ही ऊँची समझी जाएगी। पर इस अर्थ-त्याग के साहस के साथ ही जब तक पूर्ण तत्परता और आनंद के चिह्न न दिखाई पड़ेंगे तब तक उत्साह का स्वरूप न खड़ा होगा।
